Sporting Clays Shoot

On Saturday, March 2nd, the Alabama-Florida Council, Boy Scouts of America will host the 20th Annual Sporting Clays and Fun Shoot at Camp Alafla in New Brockton, Alabama. As America's fastest growing shooting sport, sporting clays has been called "golf with a gun." Competitors move from station to station through the Boy Scout Camp along a challenging course designed and managed by a leader in the industry, Howell Shooting Supplies. At each of the 8 stations, targets are thrown mimicking hunting presentations. A shooter may encounter flushing "quail", high overhead "dove," bounding "rabbits," or the challenging "springing teal" (straight up).
